

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30. 1742.

Naples, Sept. 18.

On the 8th of this Month the Duke de Castropignano arriv'd here from the Army, and had an Audience of his Majesty at Portici, where the Court is at present. He met there but an indifferent Reception, on account of the Army's being reduc'd from upwards of 16 to less than 8,000 Men. They are for the present quarter'd about Aquila, and the rest of the Forces in this Kingdom, which together may make about 6,000 Men, have Orders to approach this Capital. It is reported, that the English have made some new Propositions to our Court, but of this there is no Certainty; tho' what renders it probable is, the Continuance of some of their Men of War in our Seas. We still remain uneasy on the Head of Conspirators, of whom we daily either find or frame new Suspicions. Among the rest the Court has conceived a Jealousy of the Prince of Caraffa Colubrano, upon which he was ordered to retire to his Estates in the Country; since then we have found Cause to think he held a Correspondence with some other Malecontents at Rome: Upon which his Majesty caused an Application to be made on this Subject to his Holiness, who made no Scruple of ordering three Persons, mention'd to him by our Minister, to be arrested without delay; but this Order came too late for two of them, who were set out the Day before for Leghorn; and, as we are since inform'd, have very wisely taken shelter on board the English Fleet. The Third, Don Francis Pufitano, has been seized, and will, as some say, be sent hither, tho' that is a Thing we very much doubt; however it is certain, that some Letters of great Consequence were found upon him, which have been transmitted to the Duke de Monteleone, Secretary of State.

Bologna, Sept. 18. We are like to become again the Centre of Intelligence, much against our Inclination. The Cardinal Legate is return'd hither, on the News of the Spaniards intending to come again into our Territory. According to the best Intelligence we can get, this Army consists at present of 13,000 Foot, and 2,700 Horse. They are marching towards us with great Diligence in three Columns, and on the 20th the first, which consists of their Horse and Dragoons, arriv'd at Fano. If they persist in their Resolution of coming hither, as there is no Doubt they will, our Country must again become the Seat of War, as Count Traun has already acquainted our Legate. The King of Sardinia having exhorted the Duke of Modena, to come to some fix'd Resolution as to his Conduct, and his Highness having received the same Advice from the British Court, has thereupon thought proper to order his Garisons in Monte-Alfonso, Sestola, and Venegola, to lay down their Arms and admit Piedmontese Garisons into these Places; upon which, it is said, his Serene Highness will immediately enter into the Receipt of his own Revenue, and there is Reason to hope will very soon be restored to his Dominions.

Milan, Sept. 19. We perceive by the Dispositions made by his Sardinian Majesty, that the Spaniards will not long enjoy their Conquests in Savoy. In the first Place, his Majesty has caused Arms of all Sorts to be distributed among the Highlanders of Savoy, a numerous and daring People, who are supported by 20 Battalions of Regular Troops, which are to enter that Country thro' the Valley of Aost. On the other hand, the Marquis D'Es is marching by the Pass of the Little St. Bernard with another Body of Horse and Foot, so that the Enemy will be very soon between two Fires.

Innsbruck, Sept. 26. A great Body of Troops rais'd for the Service of the Queen of Hungary in Istria, pass'd thro' Tyrol on the 15th instant, in their Way to Bavaria; where it is thought they will perform excellent Service, as they are compos'd entirely of Volunteers, and have maintain'd extraordinary good Discipline in their March.

Vienna, Sept. 22. We labour earnestly to draw together a new Army in Bohemia, for which Purpose some Thousands of Hanaques have had Orders to march thither from Moravia: These are to be joined by 5,000 Bohemian Militia, all Volunteers, and received into full Pay as Regular Troops; and with these the Saxons are to join as soon as they enter that Kingdom. An Express which lately arriv'd from Baron Berenclaus, who commands in Chief in Bavaria, brings Advice, that all things were in Readiness, and that in a very few Days he should march for Munich, in order to execute a Design of Importance.

Paris, Oct. 2. The Prince of Campo Florido has presented a Memorial, setting forth, That the Infant Don Philip is at present in Savoy with an Army of 10,000 Foot and 4,500 Horse, there being in Provence a Corps de Reserve of 5,000 Men, and as many more expected from Spain. He therefore demands 15,000 French Cavalry, which he says will be sufficient to overwhelm the King of Sardinia, and oblige him either to open a free Passage for the Army of the two Crowns into Italy, or enable them to penetrate that Way by Force. We do not however believe that this Memorial will produce any greater Effect than those formerly presented by the same Minister on the same Subject, because the same Reason still subsists, viz. that such a Step must plunge us into a general War, because in that Case the King of Sardinia's Allies would act immediately in his Favour, by a powerful Diversion. This is the rather to be apprehended, since our last Letters from Toulon assure us that they were busy in raising Batteries for securing that Port from any Attempt by the British Squadron which has lately appeared in those Seas. It is given out here that the Army of Marshal Maillebois consists of 52,000 Men, but very authentick Letters from Germany say they want 10,000 of that Number. The new Minister attends the old one constantly, but as yet we know not what to think of their joint Schemes. If M. Maillebois should be beaten in Bohemia, not only the King's Troops would be lost, but the Emperor would be entirely undone, and instead of recovering Bavaria he may be oblig'd to quit Frankfort. In the next place, we cannot discern how the Foot are to get out of Prague, or what is to become of the Sick and Wounded in that Place, supposing it practicable for the M. Maillebois to bring off the rest. We are, last of all, in some Pain about our Frontiers, where we can never judge it expedient to be overlook'd by an Army of the Allies. The Dutch Minister is excessively caref'd at Court, but with what View we cannot imagine, since it is certain that our Minister has very little Interest with the States, as appears by his failing in every Point he undertakes. The Count de Sade, who was lately Minister at the Court of Cologne, is to replace M. de la Chetardie at that of Russia; and the Marquis de Sobier has been ordered to go immediately to the Army of M. Maillebois, where he is to serve in quality of Lieutenant General.

Hague, Oct. 4. The States of this Province continue their Sessions. Yesterday the Earl of Stair and General de Brosse had a Conference with some Lords of the Regency, and the Duke of Aremberg forwarded for Vienna a Courier he received two Days before from London. Our last Letters from Prague confirm the Report we had of the Escape of some Persons of Distinction; these were the Prince of Birkenfeld and the Marquis de Beauveau, who with an Escort of 250 Dragoons are gone into Saxony. According to a Letter which has been intercepted, the Garison of that City consists at present in 12,000 Foot and 1,500 Horse; so that, in all probability, Marshal Belleisle might make such an Attempt as has been mentioned in private Letters here, especially if General Feshtitz has withdrawn his Forces to Pilsen. The general Opinion here is, that Marshal Maillebois will either hazard a decisive Battle, or be forc'd to it; it being impossible that two Armies should subsist long in a Country which has been so terribly harass'd already.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, Sept. 23. Yesterday the Hon. Thomas Burner, Esq; one of the Judges of England, who had been on the Northern Circuit, and arriv'd here on Monday last, was made a Burgess of this City, and handsomely entertain'd by the Magistrates.

Last Night the most Hon. the Marquis of Tweedale, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, arriv'd here.

One Livingstone, a notorious Thief, was Yesterday whipt thro' the Streets of this City. Some time ago he broke open a Shop in the Creams, and was apprehended in Linlithgow, but found Means to force his Way from that Jail. Afterwards he was incarcerated in this City Jail, and was banish'd, with Certification, that if he return'd he should be whipt once every Quarter, for a Year. He then enlist'd into the Dutch Service, but soon desert'd to the French, from whom he likewise made his Escape, and return'd to this City. He received the first Moiety of his Punishment Yesterday, but so unconcernedly, that he said, laughing, at his Return to Jail, This was his first Review Day.

By the last Dutch Mail we have an Account from Smyrna that the Loss by the late Fire appears to be much greater than was at first imagin'd. The Jews, tho' they have not a House left, are not near so great Sufferers as the Turks and Greeks, who have not only lost their Houses and Furniture but vast Magazines of Rice, Coffee, Oil, &c. Several Mosques and Synagogues lie in Ashes, and at least two Thirds of the City and Suburbs. It was very lucky, that the Quarter of the Franks escap'd.

stantly attended the Taking Dr. BATEMAN's PECTORAL Drops, in the several Distempers of Colds, Coughs, Pains in the Breast, Limbs, and Joints; has gain'd them a universal Character, that few Families care to be without them in their Houses. BENJAMIN OKELL, Wm. and CLER DICEY.

The Surprising Encouragement, which by constant Success, these most Valuable Drops have, for upwards of Twenty Years, met with, not only in Great Britain and Ireland, but in all Parts of the West-Indies, and other Foreign Countries; has lately induced several mean and mercenary Peter-dens to Counterfeit them; and by imitating our Seal, Bill of Directions, and Show-Boards, with our Method of Advertising, as near as they can or dare to do, without making them the same; thereby impose their dangerous Compositions upon the unwary and credulous Shop-keepers both in Town and Country, for the True and Genuine Sort.

The PATENTEE and Company therefore, in Gratitude for the universal good Reception they have so long met with, and for the Safety of those who for the future may be desirous of using the same, think themselves absolutely obliged to give this necessary Caution.

Which they earnestly request may be observed,

THAT the Bottle they Buy is not only Sealed with the Boar's Head, but has also these Words round it, BY THE KING'S PATENT, as in the Margin; and also that the Names of the PATENTEE, BENJAMIN OKELL, William and CLER DICEY, be in the Bill of Directions given with each Bottle; without which you may be assur'd it is a notorious Counterfeit, and may be of the most dangerous Consequence.

N.B. That these Drops are also Sold Retail (as well as Wholesale) at the Warehouse aforesaid, at One Shilling the Bottle, containing three Drops.
